Item No.	CDS Change	Movement Type	Declaration Completion Instructions
1	Melt and Pour Steel Document Codes	Import	Validation for the new Melt and Pour Steel Document Codes is being strengthened. When importing steel into Northern Ireland, at least two Document Codes must be declared on the Goods Item. First, at least one code must indicate the Country of Melt and Pour. This will be the country where the steel was originally melted and poured. In cases where the Goods Item is comprised of steel that was melted and poured in different countries, a different Document Code should be entered for each country. The Country of Melt and Pour Document Codes are: 'Y376', 'Y377', 'Y378', 'Y379', 'Y380', 'Y381', 'Y382', 'Y383', 'Y384', 'Y385', 'Y386' and 'Y387'. Additionally, at least one Document Code must be entered to indicate the document that contains the supporting evidence of the Country of Melt and Pour. If the Goods Item is comprised of steel that was sourced from different suppliers and there are multiple different documents that contain the supporting evidence of Melt and Pour each document should be declared against the relevant Document Code. The supporting evidence Document Codes are: 'C131', 'C132', 'C133', 'C134', 'C135', 'C136', 'C137', 'C138' and 'C139'. Failure to declare the correct combination of Document Codes may result in the declaration being rejected. Full Declaration Completion Instructions for these Document Codes can be found in Appendix 5A Union.
